Most Sports Law students are passionate about sports, and would love to work in the field of Sports Law. That goal has shaped the content of this book. Although there are precious few opportunities for students to become sports agents, there are thousands of other opportunities available for lawyers in the world of sports. Leagues, conferences, schools, teams, shoe and apparel companies, equipment companies, and media (both electronic and print) have jobs that would be fabulous for a sports nut with a law degree.

Thus, although this book does have a chapter on Sports Agency, it covers a broad range of other topics and issues dealing with both professional and amateur sports. Familiarity with a variety of topics will provide the best foundation for students to determine which aspects of Sports Law they would like to pursue.

Professor Russ VerSteeg has been involved in sports since childhood. He has taught at New England School of Law in Boston, Massachusetts since 1991 and specializes in Sports Law, Copyright, Trademarks and Legal History.
