LEGAL RESEARCH IN WISCONSIN

Second Edition

Theodore A. Potter, General Editor

with

Jane Colwin, William J. Ebbott, Mary J. Koshollek & Sunil T. Rao

This Second Edition comes nearly thirty years after the first, Legal Research in Wisconsin, which was published in 1980 by the University of Wisconsin Extension Law Department. A one-of-a-kind resource, this research guide continues the effort to offer a comprehensive reference tool about legal research in the state of Wisconsin.

Potter's work not only revises and updates chapters that have appeared before, but expands them to include electronic tools and many other new sources. In addition, the author has included three new chapters on:

- Local Government Law
- Analysis, Commentary & Practice Guides
- Other Research Tools

The authors discuss primary resources such as the Constitution, legislation, court decisions, and administrative promulgations, as they are described in their various published forms. This new edition provides readers with more research strategies and a more thorough treatment of research tools.

Legal Research in Wisconsin, Second Edition serves as a guide for attorneys, judges, paralegals, law librarians, students and others needing ready access to information contained in Wisconsin legal materials. It is also the intention of the authors that this work will benefit ordinary citizens, not as legal advice but as a guide to where information on Wisconsin's statutory, judicial and administrative information can be found.

About the General Editor

Theodore A. Potter served as Interim Co-Director and as Associate Director of the Law Library at Marquette University Law School from 1998 to 2005, and he is currently the Head of Public Services at the University of Iowa College of Law Library. Potter received a J.D. from the University of Toledo College of Law, an M.S. in Library and Information Science and a B.A. in history from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He is a member and past president of the Law Librarian Association of Wisconsin and the Ohio Regional Association of Law Libraries, as well as a member of the American Association of Law Libraries and the American Bar Association.
