THE FIRST CENTURY:

One Hundred Years Of AALL History, 1906-2005

Frank G. Houdek

Southern Illinois University, School of Law

With More
Than 30
Illustrations!

The American Association of Law Libraries was founded in 1906 to promote and enhance the value of law libraries to the legal and public communities, to foster the profession of law librarianship, and to provide leadership in the field of legal information.

Literally hundreds of law librarians and legal professionals worked together over the past century to accomplish these goals. This book is dedicated to these professionals and chronicles their incredible journey.

The author's interest in AALL history grew while he served as editor of "Introducing the American Association of Law Libraries," in 1983. He later authored, in 1994, AALL Reference Book: A Compendium of Facts, Figures and Historical Information About the American Association of Law Libraries. His final vision for this work became clear while working on the special committee to promote the year long AALL centennial celebration, which was launched at the 2005 meeting.

Houdek takes the reader on a chronological journey telling the story of the people, places and events that make up AALL history. His over 600 footnotes give unparalleled insight to other important articles, facts and documents critical to a full understanding of that moment in time.

The book's historical value is further enhanced by a detailed index that allows the researcher to answer specific questions, locate important topics or specific librarians. The work contains over 30 illustrations and photos and three separate appendixes that cover lists of all presidents and meetings, as well as winners of past Gallagher and Andrews awards. There is also a selective bibliography of books and chapters, articles and recordings on the history of AALL complete the work.

This reference book is a MUST for any AALL member library's reference shelf!
