Humorous Observations

Compiled and Edited by Kenneth Bresler

Mark Twain vs. Lawyers, Lawmakers, and Lawbreakers is an anthology of humorous sketches and quotations by America’s leading humorist, Mark Twain. The compilation covers two broad categories: law & lawyers and government & politics. Many lesser known observations and quotations are included, many of which come from Twain’s abundant letters. Carefully researched and footnoted, the book includes only Twain quotations that can be verified. Footnotes are in Bluebook format, so that they can readily be inserted into legal pleadings.
