

The Law of the International Criminal Court Second Edition

By: Young Sok Kim

Professor of Law, Ewha Womans University, School of Law, Seoul, South Korea

- A leading authority on practice and procedure from one of the experts on the International Criminal Court
- Offers a clear and in-depth look into the law, procedures, composition, and authority of the ICC
- Explore the legislative history and the meaning of war crimes and the crime of aggression under recent amendments to the ICC Statute

About This Title

In 2018, Member States celebrated the 20th anniversary of the Rome Statute. As one of the Korean delegates to the Rome Conference in 1998 that established the International Criminal Court, the author is intimately familiar with matters related to its formation and subsequent development. This work, a leading authority for the practice and procedure of the International Criminal Court (ICC), addresses a host of difficult and common questions about the court and records legislative histories of important articles of the ICC Statute.

New to the Second Edition - First Update in 12 Years!

Since publication of the first edition in 2007, there have been many important developments regarding the ICC. This new edition covers amendments to the Rome Statute that were adopted with respect to war crimes and the crime of aggression, which give the court jurisdiction over the most serious crimes of concern to the international community as a whole. It also includes important case law of the ICC.

"Kim's enormous hands-on experience with the ICC proves an incredible source of authority for this new book. So, Kim's book on the ICC will become required reading for the international lawyer, political scientists, human rights leaders, peace advocates, and government officials all over the world." – Francis A. Boyle, Foreword [to the 1st ed.]

About The Author

Young Sok Kim is Professor of International Law, School of Law, Ewha Womans University. He earned a Bachelor of Law and a Master of Law from Seoul National University, and an LLM and Doctor of the Science of Law (JSD) from University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Kim previously worked as Deputy Director of the Treaties Division in the Korean Foreign Ministry, Assistant Professor of Law in Ajou University, and Visiting Associate Professor of Law in University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He has also been Legal Advisor for the Korean Delegation to various international conferences, including the Rome Conference for the Drafting of the Statute of the International Criminal Court, as well as the second and third sessions of the Preparatory Commission for the ICC, held in New York. Since 1998, he has been involved in various meetings on the ICC, including the Assembly of States Parties for 20 years.

Table of Contents

Foreword [to the First Edition].....	xvii
Preface to the Second Edition.....	xix
Preface [to the First Edition]	xxi
Chapter 1 Introduction.....	1
Chapter 2 Establishment of the Court.....	23
Chapter 3 Crimes within the Jurisdiction of the ICC	31
Chapter 4 Jurisdictional Regime of the Court.....	141
Chapter 5 General Principles of Criminal Law	199
Chapter 6 Composition and Administration of the Court.....	227
Chapter 7 Investigation and Prosecution.....	255
Chapter 8 The Trial	277
Chapter 9 Penalties	309
Chapter 10 Appeal and Revision.....	317
Chapter 11 International Cooperation and Judicial Assistance	327
Chapter 12 Enforcement	375
Chapter 13 Assembly of States Parties and Financing.....	387
Chapter 14 Final Clauses.....	397
Chapter 15 Conclusion	409
Annex: Elements of Crime	413
Annex: Rules of Procedure and Evidence	447
Index.....	519

The Law of the International Criminal Court, Second Edition

Item #: 62526

ISBN: 978-0-8377-4102-4

Pages: xxii, 522p. (544p. total)

1 Volume, perfect bound.....$99.99 paper

Published: Getzville; William S. Hein & Co., Inc.; 2019

 customerservice@wshein.com

 800-828-7571

