A Valuable Tool for Identifying the Reference Materials Available in Today's Academic Law Libraries

*The NEW Edition . . . Now Available from Hein!!*

THE LAW LIBRARY REFERENCE SHELF: ANNOTATED SUBJECT GUIDE Fifth Edition

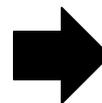

By Dr. Elizabeth W. Matthews
Professor Emerita - Southern Illinois University School of Law Library

While reference materials vary from one academic law library to the next, the majority of these libraries feature a core reference collection that allows patrons to quickly find answers to their law-related questions. Since 1999, librarians have relied on the fourth edition of Dr. Elizabeth Matthews's The Law Library Reference Shelf to help guide them when deciding which of these reference materials to carry in their library.

Now, Dr. Matthews has compiled a new edition of The Law Library Reference Shelf, providing an annotated list of reference works that are found on the shelves of most major law libraries.

Arranged by broad subject areas such as almanacs, encyclopedias, bar associations, biographies, court decisions, and directories, the fifth edition also expands on previous ones by including notations when material is available online or in CD-ROM format. This subject guide also integrates new titles and editions, and a comprehensive index enables the researcher to search for works by title and author, as well.

This latest edition of The Law Library Reference Shelf is a valuable aid to anyone who needs to locate a specific reference tool, including librarians, faculty, students, attorneys, paralegals, and other members of the university community.
